Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How do I know if the day/time I'm interested in is available?

A: Just call 413 567-0923 or email tara@letsgohart.com and we'll check for you.

Q: How far in advance do I have to book?

A: Because weekend days are popular for Birthday Parties it's recommended to call about 3-4 weeks in advance. We have several hostesses so can usually accommodate.

Q: Where can I find the projects and activities offered for a party?

A: You can find our project flyers on our website at: www.letsgohart.com/western-mact or email us at: tara@letsgohart.com

Q: Will the art project be messy?

A: It depends on the project you choose. However, we do use washable paints, bring tablecloths (and drop cloths, if necessary), and do all the clean up. We also bring a cover up for each child to wear, but we also recommend you tell parents to dress their child in art-friendly clothes to be on the safe side.

Q: Do I need to tip my birthday party host/hostess?

A: That's up to you! If your hostess went above and beyond to make your child's party a success, you're welcome to give him/her a tip.

Q: Can you come to other locations besides my house?

A: We can go to any location of your choosing. Many communities have rooms in centers, libraries, churches, etc. available for parties too.

Q: What is the maximum number of children I can have at the party?

A: This is limited only by your space.

Q: If the party is held at my house, what do I need to do and what's the best place for the party?

A: There's nothing you need to do other than having a table/area big enough for the children to work in (we do bring tablecloths to protect table surfaces. It's not even necessary to have chairs, but this is up to you.

Q: Can grandparents, aunts, older/younger siblings come to the party?

A: Of course! The more the merrier. You are only charged for children who participate in the art project. Non-participating adults or children are welcome to attend free of charge.

Q: What's the best way to make a reservation?

A: Simply call us at 413 567-0923 or email us at: tara@letsgohart.com and we'll take your reservation and a non-refundable $50 deposit. This can be processed online through our secure pay pal processor or via a check. We'll then confirm with you and check in a few days before the party.
